Dear Parents,

Greetings from Loyola International School!

Children are gifts of God, and they bring in such abundance of joy into our lives. Appreciating and celebrating their presence is “Children’s Day” which is celebrated on 14th November annually. 14th of November is the birth anniversary of India’s first Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru. Apart from the tribute to Chacha Nehru (as popularly known among children), children’s day aids in spreading awareness of children’s rights, care and education.

Celebrating this joyful day, various activities have been planned for the students. Please find the details below. Students are not required to wear their Uniforms to School on that day.

All Students are expected to participate in the below mentioned activities.
