A Spectacle Of Talent, Culture And Unity

24-25 November 2023

Loyola International School witnessed a jubilant spectacle as the two-day event at Al Arabi Sports Center unfolded in three captivating sessions. Esteemed guests, including Ambassadors and education leaders, added luster to the occasion. Mr. Shanavas Bava (President of ICBF), Ms. Milan Arun (First Lady President of ICC), Mr. AP Manikantan (President of ICC) and Mr. Prasad Koduru (Chairperson for ICC Advisory Council) graced the first session, H.E. Md. Nazrul Islam (Ambassador of Bangladesh to the State of Qatar) presided over the second, and H.E. Vipul (Ambassador of India to the State of Qatar) honored the third

Word from the crowd:

'We could tell by the audience's reaction that the hardwork and perseverance spent on the annual day by the students, teachers and management payed off.' Says the Head Boy of the school- Ahmed Elgailani.

"It's heartening to see our children not only excelling academically but also showcasing their talents on such a grand stage. The Annual Day is a great opportunity for children to showcase their talent." remarked a parent of a student.

Wings of Imagination Unveiled

This year's annual day, themed 'Wings of Imagination,' featured eight sub-themes, each with conceptual acts and thematic dance representations. The event seamlessly blended entertainment and education, offering insights into nature's serenity, musical creativity, historical eras, the simplicity of life in the world of birds and animals, the flourishing togetherness in the enchanted forest, the advancements in science and technology, and the unifying power of language in the world of literature. Each theme became an epic, enlightening us with boundless joy and knowledge.

Behind the magic:

Behind every spectacle, every moment of triumph, there is a team of talented individuals working diligently to orchestrate every detail, ensuring the event's success. Months of meticulous preparation, from crafting the script to selections, rehearsals, recordings, and attention to details like costumes, props, and audio-visuals, culminated in a captivating annual day event. The collaborative efforts of students, teachers, coordinators, administration dept., and the Management were instrumental in bringing this grand spectacle to life. The outcome surpassed expectations, validating the hard work and determination as the audience left the annual day feeling happy and satisfied.

The Annual Day celebration at Loyola International School was not merely an event but a reflection of the school's commitment to nurturing well-rounded individuals. The harmonious blend of culture, talent, and unity left a lasting impression, reinforcing the school's reputation as a center for holistic education and cultural exchange.
